VOA Contact & Office Information 14
The Volunteers of America RSVP is a dedicated group of volunteers age 55 and better making a difference in Denver, Douglas, and western Arapahoe counties. RSVP volunteers utilize their experience, talents, and interests to impact their communities through a wide variety of opportunities.

As a service, RSVP is dedicated to assisting people find meaningful volunteer opportunities within their community. RSVP supports its members through volunteer information and referrals, free benefits and more. This handbook is designed as a guide to help you take advantage of the resources and benefits available to you as an RSVP volunteer.

MISSION: The VOAC-RSVP helps those 55 years and better find meaningful volunteer opportunities in which they can share their experience, abilities, and skills for the betterment of their communities and themselves.
RSVP History and Sponsor

- RSVP was launched in 1971 as a locally directed, but federally legislated grant program. The Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) oversees all RSVP projects under their Senior Corps Program. The CNCS oversees RSVP projects across the county.

- More than 200,000 Senior Corps volunteers nationwide serve at 25,000 locations each year. So, when you join the Volunteers of America RSVP, you are a part of a national network of dedicated volunteers.

Volunteers of America Colorado RSVP Sponsor

- The Volunteers of America Colorado has been the local sponsor of RSVP since 1981.
- Volunteers of America serves over 141,000 Coloradans through more than 50 distinct human service programs including housing and emergency services, hunger and nutrition services and many other community support programs.
- Since 1896, Volunteers of America’s ministry of service has supported and empowered America's most vulnerable groups, including at-risk youth, the elderly, low-income families, homeless individuals and families, women and children escaping domestic violence, and those seeking affordable housing solutions.

RSVP Eligibility and Enrollment

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

• Volunteers must be aged 55 years or better.

• The Volunteers of America’s Retired & Senior Volunteer Program is available to eligible people regardless of race, color, national origin, English proficiency, gender identity, political affiliation, sexual orientation, religion, or disability.

ENROLLMENT IN RSVP

• If you meet RSVP’s eligibility requirements, you may become an RSVP volunteer. To join, all you have to do is complete and sign the application form. There are no enrollment or membership dues!

ACTIVE/INACTIVE RSVP VOLUNTEERS

• Active RSVP volunteers are eligible to receive all of RSVP’s benefits.

• RSVP understands sometimes circumstances or situations prevent a volunteer from continuing in active community service for a period of time, or sometimes volunteers just need a break. If you find you are unable to volunteer at least one hour during a six-month period, please contact an RSVP staff member. RSVP will hold enrollment information on volunteers if they plan to volunteer again in the near future. The RSVP Program Coordinators will also help volunteers find new volunteer positions at any time.

• However, if a volunteer does NOT plan to volunteer again for at least one year, RSVP will inactivate the volunteer from the program. An inactivated volunteer is able to join RSVP again depending on the circumstances. An inactive volunteer may need to re-apply with RSVP. Contact RSVP staff for assistance.

• Volunteers can inactivate themselves from the RSVP program at any time and for any reason. To attain and maintain a consistent and high-quality program, volunteers can be inactivated at any time at the discretion of Program Staff. A volunteer can appeal this decision with a letter or email to the RSVP Project Manager.
Reporting Volunteer Hours

WHY WE COUNT YOUR HOURS

RSVP requires our Partner Agencies to record and report your RSVP volunteer hours to us each month. To receive funding to provide volunteer benefits, RSVP must report these hours to the federal government to demonstrate the effectiveness of the program. If you are not sure whether your agency is tracking your hours for RSVP, please check! This is important for a few reasons:

1. Hours mean you are covered
   As an RSVP volunteer; you carry supplemental insurance while you serve — so long as we have a record of your service. If an accident happens and you file a claim, we must have a verified hour recorded on file from your place of service or your claim may be denied.

2. Hours are currency
   Grants often require matching funds from organizations, and many grants allow the match to come “in-kind.” Many organizations use volunteer hours as the “in-kind” match for their grants. This means it is important to have a record of the hours you serve at an RSVP partner agency, because they may be critical to securing agency funding.

3. Hours demonstrate value
   When you give your time to a project by volunteering, you show that the project is valuable to you. We track volunteer hours in order to show the level of community support for the projects where RSVP members serve. Demonstrating community support is very important in creating public awareness, recruiting more volunteers, and fundraising.

4. Hours Accumulate
   RSVP tracks your “lifetime hours.” As long as you are a volunteer with an RSVP station, we track your hours. Tracking lifetime hours helps up recognize volunteers who are making a difference in their communities. All hours are recorded in our database and contribute to the individual volunteer’s lifetime hours.

Once you are placed at a station, the RSVP Program Coordinator will confirm how your hours will be collected and what, if anything you will need to do each month.
RSVP Benefits

SUPPLEMENTAL INSURANCE

Each RSVP Volunteer is eligible for supplemental insurance at no monetary cost to the individual. You pay with your volunteer service. The insurance is in excess of your own insurance. This supplemental insurance is only in effect when you are volunteering at your RSVP volunteer station. The insurance covers costs remaining after your primary insurance is exhausted. Please see the CIMA Summary of Coverages for further information.

To File a Claim,
Call the RSVP Program Manager (720-264-3311) within 24 Hours of the incident and report the incident immediately to your Site Coordinator.

RSVP will send you a claim form to complete and return to us. We will file the claim on your behalf.

Thereafter, you will be responsible for submitting all invoices, explanations of benefits, and any other requested documentation to the third-party handling your claim.

RSVP Benefits

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT
RSVP reimburses a limited number of its volunteers for mileage or bus fare to and from volunteer agencies. This includes travel to and from a volunteer agency for an interview, training, meeting, or recognition event, etc. However, this does NOT include any driving entailed while volunteering, i.e., delivering for Meals on Wheels. RSVP reimburses at a set rate per mile and/or bus fare up to a maximum amount per month.

• The current rates and written instructions for travel reimbursement are printed on the back of the travel reimbursement form. A travel reimbursement form, a travel reimbursement application, as well as samples of completed travel reimbursement forms, are available upon request.

RSVP’s Travel Reimbursement Policies are as follows:

• Travel reimbursement is limited to those people who would otherwise be unable to afford to volunteer. Anyone interested in receiving travel reimbursement must fill out a reimbursement application and return it with a copy of their driver’s license. The application will be reviewed, and the volunteer notified if they qualify to receive the travel reimbursement. Participation in the travel reimbursement program is OPTIONAL. Volunteers are not required to complete or submit travel reimbursement forms if they do not wish to be reimbursed.

• RSVP travel reimbursement is ONLY for travel to and from an RSVP volunteer agency. RSVP does not reimburse for mileage incurred while carrying out a volunteer assignment (i.e., Meals on Wheels) or for unrelated trips on the way home from a partner agency.

• RSVP is NOT able to reimburse volunteers for walking to their volunteer agency.

• RSVP is able to reimburse for public transportation fees.

• All travel reimbursement requests to RSVP must be filled out on a blue RSVP Travel Reimbursement Request form. A new form is enclosed with each reimbursement check.

• Travel Reimbursement Forms are due the 3rd of the following month. Late or incorrect forms will delay your reimbursement until the next month.

• RSVP can reimburse a maximum of $20 each month. Reimbursement checks CANNOT be issued if the amount is under $5.00. Travel forms will be held until $5.00 or more is accumulated.

• An automobile driver must write his/her current driver’s license number and expiration date in the space provided on the Travel Reimbursement Form. Drivers are responsible for renewing their licenses and insurance.

If you have questions regarding RSVP travel reimbursement policies or forms, contact RSVP Project Manager at 720-264-3311.
RSVP Benefits

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

Annual Recognition Event
RSVP recognizes its volunteers for their community service in several ways throughout the year. RSVP holds an annual recognition event to honor all of our volunteers and recognize milestones. Each year that you are with RSVP, you will receive an invitation to the recognition event.

RSVP Newsletters
The RSVP eNewsletter will be emailed to volunteers monthly, highlighting events and projects in our community. The newsletter provides information on special events and projects, new volunteer opportunities, volunteer agencies, and outstanding RSVP volunteers nominated by site volunteer coordinators. Volunteers may request the newsletter to be mailed each month if they prefer that format.

The RSVP staff encourages you to submit anything you would like to share with your fellow RSVP volunteers (poems, recipes, stories, etc.)
Please Contact: RSVP Program Coordinator Gayle Larsen 720-264-3339 glarsen@voacolorado.org
Volunteers of America, Attn: RSVP, 2660 Larimer Street, Denver, CO 80205

KEZW 1430AM Radio Volunteer Spotlight
An RSVP volunteer is highlighted regularly during the Volunteer Spotlight on the KEZW 1430 AM radio station. This volunteer is nominated by their site coordinator for all the work they contribute. The volunteer will be notified of the nomination and will receive a Certificate of Appreciation.

TV Volunteer Spotlights
RSVP also nominates its outstanding volunteers for local community service awards, such as the Channel 7 Everyday Hero Award. A few RSVP volunteers have received these prestigious awards!

Volunteer Rights and Responsibilities

Volunteers have the right to meaningful assignments, respectful supervision, and recognition for their service. In return, volunteers agree to perform their duties to the best of their abilities, be loyal to the mission and goals of the agency and to follow agency policies and procedures.

A volunteer has the right:

• To expect that their time will be used wisely.
• To have a mutually agreed upon written volunteer position that has clear expectations, responsibilities, duties, supervision, and time commitment.
• To be provided appropriate workspace, equipment, orientation, training, feedback, and supervision for the position they accept.
• To be informed how their position supports the mission and goals.
• To have their suggestions heard in the planning of their work.
• To be informed of policies, procedures, and benefits associated with the position.
• To say “no” to volunteer positions that they are not interested in filling.
• To be considered for promotions, special assignments, transfers, and a variety of experiences.
• To have an inclusive work environment that is respectful of all people, including those served, paid staff and volunteers.
• To be treated as a co-worker with other staff and/or volunteers to achieve common goals.
• To feel valued and be recognized for their contributions.
• To participate in RSVP regardless of race, color, national origin, English proficiency, gender identity, political affiliation, sexual orientation, religion, or disability.

Volunteers are expected:

• To support and be loyal to the mission, goals and philosophy of RSVP and the specific programs in which they are working.
• To be open and honest about intent, goals, interests, and skills.
• To carry out position responsibilities to the best of their ability and follow the agency’s policies and procedures.
• To accept guidance and direction with a supervisor and team and to discuss problems, concerns and suggestions with supervisor or the volunteer manager.
• To be open to feedback and offer assistance in correcting problems or misunderstandings.
• To participate in orientation, training, or meetings.
• To complete records or reports on time.
• To ask questions and ask for help if unclear how to proceed with an assignment or duty.
• To respect the confidentiality of the organization, the people served, and other staff and volunteers
• To respect all those you serve and serve with, regardless of race, color, national origin, age, English proficiency, gender identity, political affiliation, sexual orientation, religion, or disability.
• To be punctual and reliable, notifying their supervisor of absences as far in advance as possible.
• To demonstrate professional, respectful behavior at all times, including when faced with challenging situations.
• To be cooperative and treat others with respect at all times, maintaining good working relationships.
Prohibited Activity

- Volunteers and Grantee staff do not engage in, and grantee funds are not used for, any of the following activities, to the extent they are prohibited in the applicable program regulations:
  - electoral activities,
  - voter registration,
  - voter transportation to polls, and
  - efforts to influence legislation

- Volunteers do not engage in any activity which would otherwise be performed by an employed worker or which would supplant the hiring of or result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for service.

- Neither the Grantee nor any volunteer station may request or receive compensation from the beneficiaries of RSVP volunteers.

- Any volunteer station financial support of the RSVP project is not a precondition for that station to obtain volunteer service

- A RSVP volunteer may not receive a fee for service from service recipients, their legal guardian, or members of their family, or friends.

- Grant funds are not used to finance labor or anti-labor organizations or related activity.

- Project staff or volunteers do not give religious instruction, conduct worship services, or engage in proselytization as part of their duties and, if the sponsor is an organization that conducts inherently religious activities, those activities are offered separately, in time and location, from the programs or services funded under the Corporation grant.
Volunteer Grievance Policy

There may occasionally be differences of opinion regarding decisions in the administration of RSVP and/or in the administration of an RSVP volunteer station. All RSVP volunteers are assured of unobstructed communication with respect to grievances without fear of reprisal. The following procedures shall be established to ensure the orderly settlement of complaints:

1. If an RSVP volunteer has a grievance, they must first discuss the matter with the Program Coordinator. The Program Coordinator will try to resolve the matter informally.

2. If the matter is not resolved informally, the RSVP volunteer must submit the grievance in writing to the Project Manager within five working days of the occurrence. The Project Manager will investigate the grievance and send a written reply to the RSVP volunteer within five working days.

3. If the RSVP volunteer is not satisfied with the decision of the Project Manager, the RSVP volunteer may submit the grievance in writing to the VOA Division Director of Aging and Nutrition Services within five working days of receiving what the volunteer considers to be an unsatisfactory response from the Project Manager. The Division Director of Aging and Nutrition Services will investigate the grievance and send a written reply to the RSVP volunteer within five working days.

4. If the RSVP volunteer is not satisfied with the decision of the Division Director of Aging and Nutrition Services, the RSVP volunteer may direct his/her grievance to the Chairperson of the Volunteers of America Retired & Senior Volunteer Program Advisory Council. The RSVP volunteer must submit the grievance in writing within five working days after receiving the response from the Division Director of Aging and Nutrition Services. The Chairperson will render his/her decision to the RSVP Volunteer within five working days.

All grievances will be considered closed if the RSVP volunteer does not submit the grievance within five working days of the occurrence, the volunteer fails to comply with procedural guidelines, or if the grievance process has been exhausted.

RSVP Confidentiality Agreement

All information – address, phone number, etc. – you have provided to RSVP will remain confidential and for RSVP use only. RSVP will not sell the information. RSVP will always ask permission before sharing your information to a partner agency.
